34th EICF Conference and Exhibition, Sevilla

Europe's annual Investment Casting International Conference & Exhibition is returning to Spain, this time to the city of Savilla. Organized by the EICF the event will be hosted at the Sevilla International Convention Center | Sevilla, Spain

The conference theme is:

“People, Skills & Knowledge: The Future Workforce of Investment Casting”

This event will bring together leading experts, professionals, and stakeholders from across the global investment casting community to explore how human capital, competencies, and knowledge transfer will shape the future of our industry, together with the newest developments affecting Investment Casting technology.

The conference and exhibition will once again provide a unique platform to exchange ideas, present innovations, and foster collaboration within the investment casting supply chain.
